

BEHRING SEA BILL ASSAILED.

SIR GEORGE BADEN-POWELL ASSERTS THAT IT HAS MANY FLAWS.

THE TRIBUNAL OF ARBITRATION SCORED BY A CONSERVATIVE, WHO IS REBUKED BY SIR RICHARD WEBSTER—THE BILL PASSES ITS SECOND READING IN THE COMMONS, ON SIR CHARLES RUSSELL'S MOTION.

London, April 5.—Sir George Baden-Powell, Conservative Member for the Kirkcaldy Division of Liverpool, and formerly a Behring Sea Commissioner, questioned the Government in the House of Commons this evening as to the bill providing for the execution of the Paris award. He wished to know whether or not the bill had been fully approved by the Canadian Government.

Sydney Buxton, Parliamentary Secretary of the Colonial Office, answered that the Dominion Government had agreed in general to the conditions of the bill, although much opposed to one or two of its details. The Behring Sea bill, which had been introduced into the United States Congress, differed in form from the bill before the House. In substance the two measures were similar. The points of difference would be explained later.

Gibson Bowles, Conservative Member for Lynn Regis—Was the agreement of Canada unconditional or the same as in 1891, when a modus vivendi was agreed to on the condition that Canadian sealers should receive compensation?

Mr. Buxton—The honorable member must wait for a decided answer until the Government receive the papers. The Government understand that Canada has not attached any conditions, and that compensation has not been asked.

Sir Charles Russell, the Attorney-General, then moved the second reading. He reviewed the occurrences leading up to the Paris arbitration and complimented Lord Salisbury upon his efforts to make a friendly arrangement.

It would have been a most unhappy States. It would have been a most unhappy States. It would have been a most unhappy States.

BOMB-TROWER NOT FOUND.

PARIS STILL EXCITED OVER THE WRECK-ING OF THE RESTAURANT FOYOT.

A THEORY THAT IT HAD BEEN PLANNED TO BLOW UP THE SENATE CHAMBER—M. TAILLADE DISGUSTED WITH ANARCHISM—BOMB FOUND IN VERSAILLES.

Paris, April 5.—The excitement caused by the explosion of a bomb in the Restaurant Foyot last night has not abated, but has rather increased, and the fact that the bomb was exploded in front of the Palace of the Luxembourg convinces many that the original intention was to blow up the Senate Chamber, which shows traces of the explosion. The Restaurant Foyot is accessible from three streets, Rue de Condé, Rue de Valenciennes and Rue de Tournon. It was through a window on the Rue de Condé side that the bomb was thrown.

The damage to property is more widespread than the first reports indicated. All of the windows in the postoffice, opposite the restaurant, were smashed and two immense plateglass windows in a hotel at Rue de Condé and Rue de Valenciennes, which building is separated from the Foyot by a side street, were shattered.

Three Anarchists who had been under arrest had been released yesterday, and the fact that the explosion occurred only a few hours after their release is regarded as significant. There are still under arrest 104 Anarchists who have been captured in recent raids.

The Restaurant Foyot is badly wrecked. All of the glass and crockery were destroyed, and the woodwork was torn from its fastenings and splintered.

Some of the wounded who were taken to their homes are reported to have been seriously hurt. Among them is the cashier of the restaurant, Mme. Leroux, who was badly burned. M. Tailleade is suffering excruciatingly, and constantly calls to the hospital doctor for chloroform. He has been an advocate of the very crime from the effects of which he is now suffering. He is now penniless, however, and is vehement in his denunciation of Anarchists and their methods.

The police have made several arrests to-day, but thus far have been unable to connect any of the prisoners, even remotely, with the explosion.

Girard, the Chief of the Municipal Laboratory, reports that examination has disclosed that the explosive with which the bomb was charged was nitro-benzene, together with a quantity of dynamite. It is said that only three persons were in the restaurant when the explosion occurred, which accounts for the small number injured.

London, April 5.—A dispatch from Paris says that a bomb filled with nitro-benzene, together with a quantity of dynamite, was found by the police in a street in Versailles last night, a little after the explosion in the Restaurant Foyot.

The bomb which exploded in the restaurant was exploded by clockwork, as the police found among the fragments of the bomb embedded in the ceiling of the restaurant a clock-work mechanism.

Vienna, April 5.—A bomb containing gunpowder and nails was found in the Cathedral in Przemysl last night. The sexton extinguished the burning fuse.

It was surprising that no anarchistic attempt had previously been made against the Restaurant Foyot, which was the scene of one of the most famous recitations of those leaders of the Commune whom the present Anarchists regard as their heroes. The explosion in the Restaurant Foyot is more than probable that the "original intention" of the dynamite at Foyot's was not, as says the dispatch, "to blow up the Senate Chamber, which shows traces of the explosion." In the first place, these traces must be exceedingly light, if, indeed, they do not exist exclusively in the imagination of those police officials whose stupidity and impotency are much complained of by the people of Paris.

The latest and latest news of the explosion, caused by Emile Henry, Paulows and other Anarchists, whose existence and abominable designs were known to the police, as admitted by the prefecture's detectives and his high officials, who said that they had been ordered to arrest the Anarchists in London and Brussels, but had lost track of them a month or two before the explosion at the Hotel Foyot.

The latest explosion could not have been directed against the Senate Chamber, as the explosion in the Restaurant Foyot was of ordinary width. Moreover, the Senate Chamber is not at all near the explosion, which was in the Luxembourg Palace, separated from the Senate Chamber by a long distance. The Restaurant Foyot that the Anarchists wanted to destroy. When the victorious army of M. Thiers entered Paris, the Anarchists were killed by a bomb in the Restaurant Foyot, and a noted orator in the Automobile Club, was sentenced to-day to six months' imprisonment for having in his possession a bomb.

Lille, April 5.—Thirty-five Belgian Anarchists, who had been arrested in this city, were to-day condemned to imprisonment for life.

SEVERAL SAMOAN CHIEFS PUNISHED. CHIEF JUSTICE IDE SENDS ONE TO PRISON FOR TWO YEARS AND FINES THE OTHERS—ANOTHER REVOLT.

Berlin, April 5.—Advices from Samoa concerning the recent troubles there and their causes say that the American Chief Justice, Mr. Ide, summoned before him seventeen of the discontented chiefs and compelled them to withdraw all of the complaints which they had made against the Government. To cheer the chiefs, the Government, under compulsion, but adhered to their protest against the action of the Government in enforcing the disarmament of the natives. A special accusation was made by the chiefs against the Government, that it had ordered the Ana tribe, charging them with having killed and spread the rebellion of the natives, but the chiefs refused to accept the Government's version of the facts. The chiefs ended on February 2, and three days later Chief Justice Ide sentenced Chief Aiala to imprisonment at hard labor for two years, and imposed on the other chiefs fines varying from $20 to $50, with imprisonment until the fines should be paid.

The latest disorders, according to the advices, were incited by Chief Fesoano, of Aana, who induced the chiefs to rebel against the Government. Maliciously, the Government made an attempt to arrest Fesoano, but were unsuccessful, as the other chiefs refused to let him go or to give any information which would assist the Government in taking him. The advices add that it would require a large force of troops to carry into effect the decree ordering the natives to disarm.

LIBERALS CARRY A BY-ELECTION. London, April 5.—A by-election was held to-day in the middle division of Lancashire to fill the seat vacated by the late Mr. James W. Phillips, Liberal Member for the division. The Liberal candidate, Mr. James W. Phillips, Liberal Member for the division, was elected by a large majority.

JAMAICA DOESN'T LIKE THE WILSON BILL. Kingston, Jamaica, March 27.—The Jamaican sugar producers are sorely puzzled over the American Tariff Bill. A careful study of the clauses on sugar duties in the proposed Wilson bill gives no satisfaction. That part of the measure seems a muddle, and men who have devoted much time to the study of the bill are unable to give a clear opinion on it.

THE HUNGARIAN PRESS AND THE EMPEROR. Budapest, April 5.—The Hungarian newspapers show anxiety to conciliate the Emperor, who, their editors fear, may have misinterpreted their mourning for Kosuth. The most influential journals propose that the Reichstag formally demonstrate the country's loyalty to the Emperor. The Hungarian press is divided on the subject of the Emperor's visit to Hungary. Some are of the opinion that the Emperor's visit to Hungary is a necessary step towards the reconciliation of the Emperor with the Hungarian people.

MARK TWAIN AMONG THE ENTERTAINERS. Paris, April 5.—An entertainment was given this evening at the British Embassy for the benefit of the French and American schools in Paris. Mark Twain read numerous selections from his writings and was applauded enthusiastically. Many members of the French and American press were present.

BRIVES AND PALLFACIS BATTING. MANY KILLED IN THE FIGHTING ALONG THE WASHITA RIVER INDIAN TERRITORY. El Reno, O. T., April 5.—The military authorities at Fort Reno have received further information of the Indian outbreak in C. County in Oklahoma. The number of killed and wounded in the first encounter is given as two whites and one Indian killed and one Indian wounded. Information from other trustworthy sources does not agree with these figures, and is at least two hours later.

COKE WORKS TO RESUME. If the strike is broken, as now appears, the works in the region will resume on Saturday. All the coke works between Scottsdale south to Fair Chance have been idle since yesterday morning. Some few of the more rebellious strikers say they have abandoned their fight only since the operators abandoned their efforts to make coke. They contend the fight will be renewed when an effort is made to start the works again. The operators and the authorities are confident no further trouble will occur, and it has been announced to-night that a meeting of miners will be held at Scottsdale on Saturday to officially declare the strike off.

RIOTOUS MOBS SUBDUED.

COKE STRIKERS LESS UNRULY.

LAWLESSNESS SUPPRESSED BY SHERIFFS' DEPUTIES.

STRIKE LEADERS IN JAIL—WHOLESALE ARRESTS OF THEIR DELIBERATE FOLLOWERS—TUMULTUOUS CROWDS MARCHING TO AND FRO THROUGH THE COKE REGION.

Pittsburg, April 5.—A correspondent of "The Times" telegraphs the following from Uniontown, Penn.: What was designed to be the greatest strike ever known to the Connellsville coke region has completely petered out, and there is not now left enough of the recent uprising of the discontented foreigners to make a creditable death struggle to a labor dispute. The mutinous demagogues who fatten on disaster and who feed best while their pitiable dupes starve stood no show in the presence of the plain law administered in heroic doses by courageous officials. As a result L. R. Davis, District President of the United Mine Workers' Association, Daniel Derby, Secretary of the Association, and 132 of their ignorant and dangerous followers are now crowded into the new jail here, charged with killing Joseph H. Paddock, chief engineer of the H. C. Frick Company.

While the officials of Fayette County have been industrious in their efforts to suppress the rampant savagery of the striking outlaws, and have succeeded in bringing at least into the shadow of justice the two self-styled leaders and their little army of followers, they must be regarded as derelict in duty until they have overtaken and guaranteed rigorous punishment to the riotous and infamous McSloy, who have been directly responsible for more contention, strife and distress in this region in the last ten years than can be credited to any score of criminals in Pennsylvania. Desmond and McSloy were both dangerous Anarchists. Both have been imprisoned several times since they inflicted themselves upon this region, eleven years ago. They were in front of the murderous mob at the Davidson works, near Connellsville yesterday. They are now dodging justice behind the ignorant, but remarkably willing tools. They are reported to have left this region, but the authorities are confident of their capture.

ONLY ONE HUNGARIAN KILLED. The Hungarian killed by the Sheriff's posse after the Paddock murder was the second and only other life taken in the uprising just suppressed. Two other Hungarians were seriously wounded, but it is now thought they will recover. The body of the Hungarian was taken to Connellsville this afternoon and was given to an undertaker for burial at the expense of the county. He had no friends, and no one can be found who knew his name. The body was left lying where it fell yesterday until the coroner took charge of it this afternoon. A report that eight dead Hungarians were found in a trench in a woodland at Brownfield was not correct. The report that Sheriff W. H. Wilhelm, had called on the Governor for assistance was unfounded, as was also the report that the citizens of the region were terrorized.

There was no time during the four days of this trouble when the situation seemed more critical than at daylight this morning. At least 3,000 men divided up into six distinct bodies, were marching in different directions through the region. They had been out all night, and had no information regarding the arrests of Davis and Derby. The main body moving on Mount Pleasant had scarcely gotten across the line into Westmoreland County when Sheriff P. J. McCann, personally notified the army to disband and leave that county. He told them of the arrest of Davis and Derby. Almost immediately there was a decided break in the ranks, and before an hour the march was entirely abandoned. The marchers had thrown away or concealed their weapons, and, subdued and humbled, they sought their miserable homes, probably to brood over their defeat until some dangerous demagogue inspired them to another ghost dance and probably more murders.

One hundred additional men were sworn in as deputies to-day, and were distributed to points throughout the region. The Westmoreland County Sheriff also added many more men to his army of deputies as a precautionary measure. About forty more Hungarians were arrested by the Fayette County deputies during the day. The entire 132 rioters were inspected this evening in the jail, and about twenty of them were identified. They had been present at the Paddock murder. The time for giving Davis and Derby a hearing has not yet been fixed.

Uniontown, Penn., April 5.—President L. R. Davis, of the Mine Workers' Association, was brought to jail this morning, charged with the murder of Superintendent Joseph Paddock, of the Frick Company, who was brutally killed yesterday. Davis was arrested at Scottsdale, at 11 o'clock last night, within a stone's throw of the strikers' camp. Davis turned pale when the Sheriff told him he was wanted for complicity in the murder of Paddock, and for a moment looked as if he would like to flee to the camp of the strikers. Davis was wearing a light overcoat when arrested. One of the leaders of the rioters who killed Paddock wore a light overcoat. Davis said he got on the train at Connellsville, at 3:45 o'clock yesterday, and that he was not with the murderers of Paddock. It is suggested that he could have remained in hiding at Davidson, where Paddock's murder occurred, and jumped on the train as it passed before reaching Connellsville. Davis said he was sorry for yesterday's occurrence, but the foreign element could not be controlled. He feels certain that he cannot be connected with the killing of Paddock. He will ask for a habeas corpus hearing at once and expects to be discharged on bail. The general feeling among the more intelligent strikers is that they cannot stand so much feeling as has been stirred up against them by yesterday's troubles, together with the unpropitious time for a strike. The foreign element, however, are nothing daunted, and any further bloodshed will be caused by them.

In view of the fact that Davis is in jail, the Strikers' Executive Board to-day elected Alexander Markly president of the organization. Owing to the strike, the county commissioners will apply for an extra session of court to try the strikers under arrest. This morning, about 9 o'clock, a mob of 1,600 strikers raided the Hill Farm works at Dunbar and drove the men from the yards, and brought them out of the mines. They were then forced to fall in line and march to Dunbar, where a big meeting was held. It was decided that nothing further would be done until Monday. This action is in view of the delegate convention to be held at Scottsdale Saturday to consider the advisability of declaring the strike off.

Secretary Darby, when arrested, was attempting to get bail for Davis. The expected attack on the Movers' plant last night did not take place, but the situation in that vicinity is not relieved because the belief that the inevitable has only been delayed. Mover works were running full this morning. The men are working under guard of armed deputies. The first disturbance at Mover works was on Monday, at 1 o'clock. The strikers were soon quieted. A crowd of Hungarians, including men and women, became belligerent at the company store, but were promptly arrested by the deputies. Sixty deputies were on duty at Mover works on Monday, but at 8 o'clock this morning twenty-five were relieved from duty to take needed rest.

Mount Pleasant, Penn., April 5.—Sheriff McCann has his first encounter with a coke strike to-day. The 300 or more Slavs from Fayette County, who camped near Scottsdale last night, moved into Westmoreland County this morning, and after having ordered all his deputies to leave from the
